

Click Here For Sound File

Review Lesson

for development of technique
(see footnote)

The musical score consists of 12 staves of music. The first six staves are in C major, and the last six are in B-flat major. The music features various rhythmic patterns and melodic lines designed for technical development.

This page may be given as a single lesson or it may be assigned in parts, according to the ability of the pupil. No new problem is taken up at this point.